Mayor Healy to Swear in New Chief Judge To Jersey City Municipal Court

JERSEY CITY – Mayor Jerramiah T. Healy will swear in Judge Nesle Rodriguez as Chief Judge of the Jersey City Municipal Court during a 3:30 p.m. ceremony on Friday, May 9, 2008 at the Jersey City Municipal Court, 365 Summit Avenue.

“Judge Rodriguez possesses the leadership and the character to fulfill this position,” Mayor Healy said. “I am confident that she will lead the Jersey City Municipal Court with fairness and integrity. For more than 20 years, Judge Rodriguez has earned the respect of the individuals and entities associated with the Court, and I am delighted to welcome her as the new Chief Judge.”

In January 2006, Mayor Healy appointed Judge Rodriguez to the Jersey City Municipal Court as a full-time Judge. A graduate of Rutgers Law School in Newark, Judge Rodriguez has served in many roles, including as a Court Appointed Guardian as Litem, representing the interests of children in the midst of custody and other domestic matters.

Judge Rodriguez lives in Jersey City with her husband and two young children.
